

Rethink the way you invest in tech.

Understand your dependence

Few organizations truly understand how their use of technology supports the Big Tech agenda. Let's start by measuring your dependence on Big Tech and understanding the full scope of what your tech spend is supporting. Now let's generate a plan to help you break free.

Take action to break free

Once you understand your call to action, it's time to act. We'll work with you to implement your break free strategy. Requirements will be gathered, coordination facilitated, and migration and integration managed from start to finish. All done in a high-quality, secure manner, and without interruption to your business operations. New processes will be supported with training.

A Movement for Change

WE ARE A COILITION OF TECHNOLOGY
EXPERTS united around a common cause of technology independence.

WE STAND AGAINST THE CURRENT TRENDS
OF BIG TECH encroaching on the rights and privacy of organizations. As well as censoring, suspending, and de-platforming those with values that are not considered in alignment with their agenda.

WE BELIEVE THAT YOU SHOULD NOT HAVE TO COMPROMISE YOUR VALUES and hand
over control of your data and business processes when seeking to scale and modernize.

WE AIM TO HELP EVERY VALUES-BASED BUSINESS BREAK FREE from Big Tech and maintain control of their data and processes.

We are passionate about delivering high-quality, trustworthy technology services that you can be proud to support.

Contact us today to join the global movement aimed at taking back control. Let's discuss a plan for change.
